

CENTENARY COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

PRESIDENT'S REPORT &
HONOR ROLL OF DONORS

2002 - 03

Dear Friends,

Amidst the excitement and bustle of each new academic year, the Centenary community takes a moment to reflect on the preceding year and to thank—albeit all too inadequately—all those who have contributed to yet another special year in our history.

There are contributions of all types and from many sources, both expected and serendipitous. There are the efforts of the faculty and staff, whose good work serves students. There are the students themselves, who each year teach us as much as we teach them, if not more. And there are the many alumni, friends, parents, supporters, visitors and even strangers who have contributed to the Centenary Experience.

For the 2002-03 year, we have combined my Annual Report with our Honor Roll of Donors, the comprehensive listing of those who have given financially during the past year. So much of what is written in the “accomplishments section” is supported or made possible by those listed in the “donor section.”

Without our loyal supporters, and the future ones who will recognize the potential and needs of Centenary, the College could not thrive. Even while we thank each one for support, we are encouraging further participation for the coming year. Support for our Great Teachers and Scholars Fund is more important than ever in these days of diminishing investments and difficult economic times. And while we ask, we pledge to scrutinize expenses and seek every outlet for proper stewardship of the funds entrusted to us. The aim, always, is to serve students.

Centenary is reviewing a proposed master plan that calls for managed growth in the coming decade. We know now that we need improvements to the Student Union Building and Mickle Hall of Science. We find that additional scholarships and financial aid are sorely needed to attract and retain those gifted and interested students who cannot afford the cost of a Centenary education. We are losing too many due solely to economics.

I hope you will celebrate with me the successes of 2002-03, many of which are highlighted in these pages. As you do, please accept our sincerest thanks for your interest and your past and future support.

Kenneth L. Schwab

The atrium of the new Anderson Choral Building forms an east side entry to the new building as well as to the Hurley Music Building, Feazel Instrumental Hall and the future arts complex.

Dr. Jon Steinbrecher officially invites Centenary to join the Mid-Continent Athletic Conference in October 2002. A large crowd filled the Gold Dome for the announcement.

Centenary music students and the entire community spent an entire academic year celebrating the 150th anniversary of music at Centenary.

The 20th anniversary of the dance program was the occasion for special performances in February 2003.

Centenary Choir members and alumni take part in the November 2002 “Picture Walk” that moved historic photos from the Choir Loft in Mickle Hall to the Choir’s new home in the Anderson Choral Building.

PRESIDENT'S CLUB

Our grateful thanks to members of the President's Club, who each contributed $5,000 or more to Centenary College between June 1, 2002, and May 31, 2003.

150th Anniversary of the Study of Music at Centenary. From the opening President's Convocation, which featured the Cox Family, to Founders' Day Convocation, which featured Grammy-winning alumnus Karl Dent '75, the College celebrated the 150th year since the hiring of Centenary's first music professor. The celebration included a gala celebration, reunion and Open House in April. It concluded at commencement, when violist Miles Hoffman of National Public Radio delivered the commencement address.

College Joins Mid-Continent Conference. On Oct. 17, 2002, Centenary accepted the invitation to become the ninth member institution of the Mid-Continent Athletic Conference, with league competition beginning in the 2003-04 school year. Centenary immediately became eligible to compete for conference championships and NCAA berths.

20th Anniversary of Dance. Centenary's dance program and Escaped Images Dance Company celebrated the 20th anniversary of dance at the College with a special celebration Feb. 21-23. Twenty-four dancers performed compositions created by 15 choreographers.

Board of Trustees Chairman William G. Anderson answers media questions at the dedication of the Anderson Choral Building and Feazel Instrumental Hall.

2002 and ready for full use at the beginning of the spring 2003 semester. The Anderson Choral Building and the Feazel Instrumental Hall offer new areas for the music program. The buildings are named in memory of G.M. "Jake" Anderson and Dr. Gertie Anderson and Cynthia Day Feazel and Lallage Feazel Wall. In addition, the former Hurley Recital Hall was extensively refurbished and named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Anderson. Rooms in the Choral Building are the Nancy Mikell Carruth Choir Room, the Alberta Broyles Choral Room and the Harvey and Alberta Broyles Choral Lounge.

Varsity Swim Teams, Club Sport Lacrosse Competitions Begin. Two new teams—one varsity and one a club sport—began competition in 2002-03. Both the men's and women's intercollegiate swim teams were added, and Lacrosse became Centenary's newest club sport.

KSCL to Add Public Radio. The Federal Communications Commission approved Centenary's plans to expand its KSCL-FM Radio Station to a 24-hour-a-day professional public radio station.

The FCC's action followed a four-year effort by students, faculty and community volunteers to broaden the station's range, offer a professional radio experience to Centenary students and provide a community service via additional local and public radio programming.

Donald A. Webb Seminar Room. In December 2002, the College dedicated the Donald A. Webb Seminar Room in Magale Library, in honor of the immediate past president of Centenary. The room offers an elegantly appointed space and up-to-date equipment for seminars and meetings.

William Joyce Offices Open on Campus. Offices were completed through a collaborative arrangement that brought Emmy Award-winning writer-illustrator William Joyce to campus. The renovated second floor of the Peters Building now houses Joyce's Howdy Ink company. The space was dedicated on Dec. 7, 2002, and an Open House was held for the campus and the community.

Louisiana Heritage Project. Funding from the Louisiana Board of Regents combined with funds in the Department of Ancient and Foreign Languages to begin a major publishing project that got under way during the summer of 2003. The project focuses on Louisiana's rich multicultural heritage as recorded in its abundant French, German and Spanish literature of the 19th Century. The project will offer two imprints. The Éditions Tintamarre will feature critical editions prepared by scholars from across the nation; the Cahiers du Tintamarre will offer works for publication by undergraduate students. Students play a major role in all aspects of book design and production for both of these series.

Renovation of Brown Chapel. In December 2002, Centenary celebrated the renovation of Brown Memorial Chapel, including refurbished pews, new sound, lighting, carpet and paint. Members of the Brown family were honored in a rededication ceremony during the annual Candlelight Christmas Service.

Donnie R. Wilhite Media Room Opens. A new state-of-the-art media room was added in the Gold Dome. It became available for news media services, press conferences and Centenary classes, workshops and seminars. It was named in memory of long-time supporter Donnie R. Wilhite.

"After the events of Sept. 11, I never thought that I would have been able to pay for college. But due to the generous donations of Centenary's friends and families, I was able to come here. I owe them everything for this experience."

SPEAKERS, EVENTS ON CAMPUS '02-03

The Cox Family of O Brother, Where Art Thou Fame. The College began the academic year with a special program and a local connection to a national film and a literary classic. The Cox Family of nearby Cotton Valley, Louisiana, gifted the College with a performance at President's Convocation. They were among performers featured in the film O Brother, Where Art Thou? First-Year Experience students studied the film and the Odyssey, upon which the film was loosely based.

Sept. 11 Memorial Event. The Centenary campus joined the nation in remembering the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks in New York, Washington and Pennsylvania. The campus community participated in a range of activities, from an early morning memorial service to an evening candlelight service in the Hargrove Memorial Amphitheatre.

Convocations and lectures this year offered myriad opportunities for Centenary students. Bishop William Hutchinson of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church delivered the dedicatory remarks at the dedication of Brown Chapel renovations. Also speaking or visiting on campus this year were actor/ photographer Leonard Nimoy, speaking in connection with an exhibit of his photographs at Meadows Museum; journalist and researcher Mark Fischetti, on campus as an Attaway Fellow; the Honorable Emily Jane Goodman, visiting for a week as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow; Gideon Meir of the Foreign Office of the State of Israel; the Honorable Kathleen Blanco, Louisiana lieutenant governor; Amanda Chenault, curator-director of the Bayou Folk Museum in Cloutierville, kicking off the Spring Literary Study Series; author and alumnus Dr. Vernon Sanders, here for a book-signing event for his To Chase the Sun; and former Louisiana Governor Buddy Roemer, speaking to the Forerunners group.

Hoffman Speaks at Commencement. Miles Hoffman, noted violist and commentator for National Public Radio, delivered the 2003 commencement address. Honorary doctorates were awarded to Mr. Hoffman and to the Reverend William Hutchinson, Bishop of the Louisiana Conference, United Methodist Church, and to Bossier City Mayor George Dement '49.
